

Conifer (Evergreen) Facts

- Conifers continue to absorb up to 250 gallons of water a day in winter months.
- Spruce and cedar require wetter conditions and Hemlocks need some shade while small.
- Conifer roots help to stabilize slopes.

Information compiled for the Shore Steward program run through WSU Extension / Snohomish County (chrys@wsu.edu, 425 357-6020)